Do not use a front or rear projection television with your Nintendo Entertainment System® (NES®) and Famicom games. Your projection television screen may be permanently damaged if video games with stationary scenes or patterns are played on your projection television. Similar damage may occur if you play a video game on hold or pause. If you use your projection television with Famicom games, Nintendo will not be liable for any damage. This situation is not caused by a defect in the NES or Famicom games; other fixed or repetitive images may cause similar damage to a projection television. Please contact your TV manufacturer for further information.

READ BEFORE USING YOUR NES

A very small portion of the population may experience epileptic seizures when viewing certain kinds of flashing lights or patterns that are commonly present in our daily environment. These persons may experience seizures while watching some kinds of television pictures or playing certain video games. Players who have not had any previous seizures may nonetheless have an undiagnosed epileptic condition. We suggest that you consult your physician if you have an epileptic condition or if you experience any of the following symptoms while playing video games: altered vision, muscle twitching, other involuntary movements, loss of awareness of your surroundings, mental confusion, or loss of consciousness.

HATCH AND MATCH WITH YOSHI!

Yoshi is an action puzzle game starring Mario's dinosaur buddy Yoshi, and other familiar characters like Little Goomba and Blooper. Once again, Mario is going to have to battle away to save Yoshi, who is imprisoned in an egg. Match the egg shells to release Yoshi and score big points!

HOW TO PLAY

In T-Rex, fast finger work is vital. Mario shuffles the fast traps and watch the run of characters falling from the top of the screen. There are six different characters, including Little Goomba, Shy Guy and Blue Boo. You must match a falling character with another of the same type to make them both disappear. If the characters don't match up, they will start to stack on top and you don't want that! If your stacks grow above the tree line, the game will be over! Sometimes there's an egg with the other characters. Match up the top and bottom parts of Yoshi's egg and you will form an entire egg and clear away all the characters in between the halves. Then all three hatch out of the egg, giving you bonus points.

A TYPE

You start this game with the characters stuck up higher than the top line. As your score gets higher and you make more matches, the speed at which the characters fall increases. If you can get a character to land on one of the ten lines, both all characters and you will get 5 points. If you match and hatch Yoshi's egg, you'll get bonus points for a super score!

Egg Matching Hints From Yoshi

In the A Type game, the game level will increase after 10 characters have fallen. When the game advances to the next level, the falling speed of the characters will slow a little, but then it will gradually speed up again. Make it your aim to move on through the levels' level up!

How to Put the Egg Together

Pieces of Yoshi's egg shell are mixed in with the falling characters. If you can line up the upper and lower halves of the egg in the same column, you'll create a whole egg that will then hatch to reveal Yoshi.

If an upper shell half lands on one of Yoshi's traps, it will disappear.

If a lower shell half lands on one of Yoshi's traps, it will vanish there. You can stack characters on top of it, or try to repeat it in a trap half.

If a lower shell lands on top of another lower shell, both pieces will disappear.

If an upper shell half lands on top of a lower shell half, an egg will form and Yoshi will hatch from it.

If you sometimes have characters between an upper shell half and a lower shell half, you will get a Yoshi depending on how many characters you sandwiched.

2 Yoshi characters

Bigger Yoshi

HOW TO PLAY AN OPPONENT (2-PLAYER GAME)

Two players start the game at the same time. Every player has to clear all the characters on your traps before your opponent does. You receive an egg each time you clear your screen. However, if your characters pile up over the top line, you lose and your opponent will get an egg. The first person to receive 3 eggs wins the game.
